

4th quarter health will be a series of speakers on different health professions. I have a variety of health professionals coming to talk to the students and answer questions about their chosen professions. Hopefully this will help the students if they are interested in entering the health/medical field.